

FRIENDS OF CITY PARK'S

HISTORICAL Musical Train TOUR

Andrew Larimer (Book Writer) was the founding Artistic Director of The NOLA Project theatre company, and has produced, written, and directed in the New Orleans theatre for thirteen years. He wrote & directed Get This Lake Off My House, an early original hit for The NOLA Project after Hurricane Katrina. Most recently he wrote & directed Exterior. Pool - Night, performed at the Aloft Downtown New Orleans hotel. He has also directed A Midsummer Night's Dream and Adventures in Wonderland at NOMA's Besthoff Sculpture Garden, both of which earned him Big Easy Awards as Best Director of a Comedy. Andrew also owns, executive produces and writes for FatHappy Media, a local media production company, and is now pursuing a Master of Information and Data Science at U.C. Berkeley.