

FRIENDS OF CITY PARK'S

HISTORICAL Musical Train TOUR

Jenny L. Billot (Production Stage Manager) is a New Orleans native and long-time stage manager. Jenny is a company member of The NOLA Project and first worked with the company in 2008 on the co-production of Side Man at Le Petit Theatre. While she is mostly known for her work as a stage manager, she has experience in many aspects of theatre including technical roles, directing, and even gracing the stage at least once a decade. She has been involved with numerous NOLA Project productions including: Spider Queen, 4000 Miles, Sive, The Winter's Tale, and Truckload of Ink, just to name a few. In 2014 she graduated with her M. F. A. in Performance from The University of New Orleans, where she studied stage management and directing. She has worked with various theatre companies throughout New Orleans including: Southern Rep, Rivertown, JPAS, The Elm Theatre, The Bayou Playhouse, and See 'em On Stage Productions. By day Jenny works as a trainer and client service rep for a local software company.
