

FRIENDS OF CITY PARK'S

HISTORICAL Musical Train TOUR

Tracy Norwood, Equity Membership Candidate

Tracy Norwood (Tour Guide), an Equity Membership Candidate, has worked in theatre most of her life and both on and off screen in film and T.V. She is excited to be "on board" as a singing tour guide in the Historical Musical Train Tour at City Park. Ever since she was a little girl, she's loved riding on the train! She looks forward to making magic with such a talented cast and crew. Local stage credits include "Merrily We Roll Along" and "A Streetcar Named Desire" at the Le Petit Theatre and "Airline Highway" at Southern Repertory Theatre. She is currently the Director of Photography on "Debauchery, the Documentary," about the long running New Orleans favorite, "Debauchery!" Ms. Norwood holds a BFA in Acting with a Musical Theatre Concentration from C.W.Post on Long Island, an MA in Communications with a PR Concentration from Southeastern Louisiana University, and an MFA in Film Production with a Cinematography Concentration from the University of New Orleans.
